

The [x] had several children and we all went to Deep Ditch School. The oldest boy's name was [x] (most of the time called [x] or [x]). I don't know where he got that nickname. He liked to have fun at the other person's suffering. I will never forget one evening somebody had killed a small snake. He tried to put it on me. I ran all the way home. He liked very much to aggravate [WHO: syn in SoGA with "annoy"] the other children. He was much larger than the other children. Daddy saw me coming so that put a stop to things. The other children were not afraid of the snake. Since the snake was dead I should have known it wouldn't hurt me.

However, I did not want the snake to touch me.
