Years ago W.H. was small & his father would go to town with mule & wagon & buggy - W.H. would tell something did he didn't like & his father would look Lena up in the crib & tell W.H. Sammy-boo - gettas mouse & get her - Naturally W.H. enjoyed the candy his father would bring. and if he got Lena looked up he did not have to dimbs with her - what W.H. didn't know his father also got a bag for Lena - finally one day W.H. got frightened Lena made a noise so he wanted his father to take Lena out - He didn't want that big varment to get his sister.

W.H. like to tell all the small Children stories so this was his favorite he would make it sound real bad - W.H. would kept the children entertained.
