

Today Sam, Mary, Herbert + Emogene had lunch with me.

Talmadge, Mary Lou, George + Frances had supper with me.

Then Elnita + Katherine came by and ate.

We all had a very enjoyable day.

Herbert was surprised to know my mother taught school before she + Daddy married. Herbert was talking to J.D. Patten (Lakeland, GA). He told Herbert [that] Addie Fountain was his first teacher. He kept thinking he would come up & chat with her. However, he waited till it was too late. The school was _____ & must have been somewhere near Knight Memorial Church or in that general area.

Back in those days no certificate was required. Just as long as you finished seventh grade. Could read and write.

Hopefully I will find name of school etc.
